

For more than 175 years, Queen's has attracted some of the most academically accomplished students in the world – a collection of bright minds and ambitious spirits. When you come to Queen's, you can expect to not only become a part of its many traditions but also be exposed to innovative concepts and new ways of thinking. Queen's has a stunning limestone campus that sits on the traditional lands of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe peoples, on the shores of Lake Ontario and steps from downtown Kingston.

With one of the highest graduation rates in that country, Queen's students experience personal and academic success both during and after their time at Queen's. As Canada's definitive university experience, Queen's challenges, supports and helps students succeed.

You'll be great no matter where you go, but your greatest story starts at Queen's.

Thank you for considering Queen's as one of your post-secondary options. Below please find links to important webpages and our social media accounts to help you learn more about the Queen's University experience.

Hello, my name is Wendy Smith McCartney and I have been an Admission Coordinator with Queen's University for more than twenty-one years. I originally came to Queen's as a student and completed three degrees; a Bachelor of Music, a Bachelor of Education and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology, prior to beginning my career in post-secondary education. I am happy to assist as you navigate the admission process with us.
