BOOK A ONE-ON-ONE REVIEW

Some schools care more about report cards than your creative talent. At VFS, we see you differently. Whether you have a portfolio or not, it doesn't matter. If you want to learn how to build yours, we can help.

Vancouver Film School offers a live creative portfolio review online. Sign up for a review to get valuable insight from industry professionals and learn on the spot if you're ready to join the many VFS students and alumni making waves in the industry.

NO PORTFOLIO? NO PROBLEM! HOW IT WORKS:

Our Creative Portfolio Review initiative will connect you directly with an expert. Send us five to eight samples of your best work. We'll review them and set up a one-on-one chat to give you professional tips and creative feedback.

Even better: We'll tell you on the spot if you're ready to attend Vancouver Film School. This portfolio review process is free, confidential, and without obligation. Don't hesitate and book yours today.
